B) Supporting Information

Personal Statement

Please tick

- Include a personal statement (250-500 words) outlining the special circumstances that make you a candidate for this scholarship (see tips below).

Personal statement tips

- Think of your personal statement like a job application; you need to put your best foot forward and convince us that you're the best candidate for this scholarship.
- Start by introducing yourself; what's your background, where have you studied, what's your recent work history and what are your interests?
- Once you complete your studies, what are your intentions and career aspirations?
- Outline what your Māori heritage means to you and how you will contribute to the community.
- Describe how receiving this scholarship would make a difference to your life

C) Referees (two required)

Immediate family, friends or flatmates are not permitted to be referees.

Please submit the attached referee reports along with your application. Current students should submit one Tutor Referee Report and one standard Referee Report. If you are not a current student at Ara, please submit two standard Referee Reports.

The best referees are:

- teachers, tutors, trainers or lecturers
- employers or work experience supervisors
- sports coaches
- volunteer work organisers
- community leaders or religious leaders
- people you've worked closely with from other agencies
